

Astrology Pricing 2011

General Astrology Reading $120

Includes a brief past life reading, natal chart reading, progressions, and what to expect within the next 6 months. A numerological analysis based on your name and date of birth is included. Your full name, nick name, place and time of birth is needed for this kind of reading.

Six-Month transit Reading $80

This type of reading gives you an idea of the type of energies that you will be facing over the next 6 months through astrological and numerological analysis. This does not predict what will necessarily happen. However, this is a good indicator of what to expect and I will guide you on how to handle these upcoming energies.

Past Life Reading $150

I can do an astrological past life analysis for you. I can tell you based on your natal chart what kind of experiences you had in your last life. I can even give you an idea of how you passed on. I can also tell you the type of karma you are facing today based on your past lives. The year of your past death can also be determined with some methods that I use. I use numerology with this kind of reading as well. Like the general reading, I need your full birth name.

This package includes the analysis of the immediate prior life to this, but I am able to do a regression on your previous lives as well. Depending on how deep you would like to go, there is an additional charge to this service as this process takes more work and time. Contact me if you would like more information on this.

Astrological Synastry Reading $180

A relationship analysis between 2 people, whether it's husband/wife, girlfriend/boyfriend, 2 friends, parent/child, sibling, whomever it may be. I can find your easy points, challenging points and give you hints on how to work with any challenging points. I need your full name, time and place of birth AS WELL AS the other person's full name, place and time of birth.

Solar Return Reading $80

What to expect between your birthday (either last or upcoming) to your next birthday.

Baby's Analysis $80

If you are expecting a baby, I can tell you where your child's strengths and weaknesses lie through astrological and numerological analysis. And what his or her personality traits and challenges will be. If you know of someone who is expecting a baby, this will make a perfect gift. Contact me once the baby is born. (Email reading report only)

Three Question Reading $20

For only $20, I will examine three main areas of concern in your life through an astrological analysis.
